

RadioShack Names Telvin P. Jeffries as EVP of Human Resources

July 16, 2012 8:31 AM ET

FORT WORTH, Texas, July 16, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- RadioShack Corporation (NYSE: RSH) today announced that Telvin P. Jeffries has been named executive vice president and chief human resources officer and general manager of retail services, effective Aug. 1, 2012. Mr. Jeffries will report to Jim Gooch, president and CEO of RadioShack Corp.

As the Company's human resources leader, Mr. Jeffries's responsibilities will include overall direction of RadioShack's strategies and policies for human capital management. In addition, he will serve as the general manager of RadioShack's retail services unit, which includes the Company's kiosk business that primarily comprises the Target Mobile centers.

"It's a privilege to welcome Telvin to our senior leadership team," Mr. Gooch said. "Telvin brings over two decades of retail experience with a highly regarded U.S. retailing organization. I expect his deep experience in recruiting, training, professional development, employee engagement and other HR disciplines will make a meaningful impact across our company's culture."

Mr. Jeffries is a 20-year veteran of Kohl's Corporation, based in Menomonee Falls, Wis., which operates nearly 1,100 Kohl's department stores in 49 states. Mr. Jeffries held progressive responsibilities at Kohl's, including assistant store manager (1993–1994), director of executive recruiting (1994–1996), vice president of corporate HR (1996–1999), senior vice president of corporate HR (1999–2003), and his most recent role, executive vice president of human resources, since 2003.

A resident of Wisconsin, Mr. Jeffries's not-for-profit leadership includes service on the boards for Teen Challenge of Wisconsin, Covenant-Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare System of Wisconsin and several faith-based service organizations.
